Quote of the month

“A good craftsman never blames his tools!”

(Thought to originate from 13th Century France)

What you do not want to hear!

*You are like a bull in a china shop!
(You are very clumsy).*

Something is leaking! Water is dripping from the ceiling.

The shelves look a little wonky! (They are not level)

I smell burning!

I think you have accidentally cut through the electricity!

Why is there a big hole in the wall?

I don't think the furniture will fit through the door!
